ARTIST STORY

Emiko Rainbow is a Japanese Scandinavian American illustrator. She was called to the arts at a young age and she followed her creative passions that led to an Illustration BFA. She successfully runs her multifaceted freelance art business creating art celebrating authenticity and diversity. Her art brings color and joy to home decor, stationery, children's books, fashion, and so much more.

CHILDREN'S BOOK

EMIKO
RAINBOW

The Minnesota Historical Society Press asked Emiko if she would illustrate a children's book based in Minnesota. In the manuscript she found out it was about a Minnesotan biracial little girl, just like her! Also written by a local biracial author, her heart leaped and knew she NEEDED to illustrate this book. Everything aligned and she felt her artistic world collided with all her values. Nana and Abuela celebrates diversity, connection, and global culture. She is so proud of this book and had so much fun illustrating it!
