I'm Amira!

A passionate abstract artist on a mission to make the world a more colorful place.

I've been making art since I could hold a pencil. Drawings became painting, and painting became my obsession. Now I send art to loving fans all over the world. It's a wild ride on the canvas, and now I get to share this passion with manufacturers worldwide.

My work has been procured by collectors around the world, and most notably, by the Royal Family of Abu Dhabi.

Not only that, but my work has been featured at exhibitions all over the world from a showing at the U.S. Embassy in Abu Dhabi to The Fig House in Los Angeles, California naming her their artist in residence.

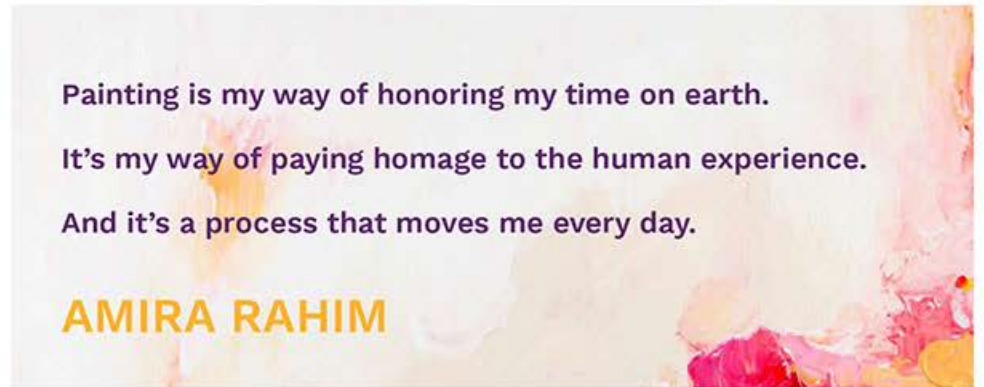

I have a subscriber and follower base that spans the entire globe, with engagement levels high for unpaid traffic.

Painting is my way of honoring my time on earth.

It's my way of paying homage to the human experience.

And it's a process that moves me every day.

DESIGN MOM

Get to Know Me

- My first commissioned piece was a bright, 4-foot-tall parrot. I created it for a pet shop in Pennsylvania when I was in high school... and yes, it's still there.
- There's one painting I keep just for me - I really love it as a viewer, not as the artist. Plus, my mom always encouraged me to, "Keep a part of myself for myself." So I have.
- I once lived in Abu Dhabi, and it was a trying time for me, so my use of color is very personal - it was a way for me to raise my energy and my vibe.
- Despite my intense color palette, I wear mostly all black. And my home décor is neutral and white. I guess you could say, "I save the colors for the canvas."
- I am semi-fluent in Portuguese. "Oi! Tudo bem?"
