

BLUE CHAIR BLESSING

Emily Hoyt (aka Blue Chair Blessing) has loved creating since she was a child. Her grandma would bring her old boxes so she could paint them or create some sort of a collage whenever she would visit. Even then she was signing her name on each freshly drawn piece of art. Emily's favorite medium is watercolor. She enjoys working with acrylics and sketches as well.

When going through a difficult time in her life, she found comfort in a little outdoor blue chair. This little blue chair has been symbolic in her journey and helped guide her to where she is today.

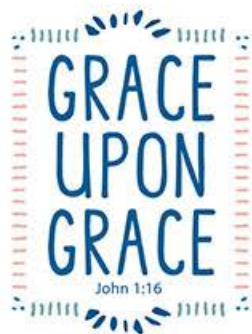

"I am so grateful for the opportunity to paint, illustrate and hand letter using the truth of God's word! I'm moved and inspired by His goodness and love. There have been many hills and valleys but one thing I know - God is faithful through it all. I hope my art will help bring some encouragement as we're reminded of His promises. I am only able to do anything by His grace."
